M/V WHATCOM CHIEF
Pier Side Repairs
Whatcom County Contract # 202203026
Sub-Contractor Flow-Down Requirements

Paragraph 1-04.1 of the Standard Specifications is hereby supplemented by the following: It is the intent of the specifications that the completed work provides for a fully operational and safe ferry for use by Whatcom County. Therefore, whether expressly indicated, stated or implied elsewhere in these contract documents, the Contractor is expected to install all parts of the system so that the end result will be a functioning and safe ferry, meeting the requirements of the United States Coast Guard and the County. This will require operation of the ferry through its operating range, testing all electrical and mechanical systems, making the necessary adjustments, establishing proper alignment of the machinery and any other tests that may be required elsewhere in these Special Provisions

In addition to the general requirements of Section 1-07 of the Standard Specifications, "Legal Relations and Responsibilities to the Public", the Contractor shall be familiar with, and shall comply with, the following:

1. RCW 9.18.120 thru .150, prohibiting suppression of competitive bidding;
2. RCW 18.27, relating to Contractor's Registration, especially RCW 18.27.111, prohibiting contracts with unregistered contractors, and RCW 18.27.110, relating to issuance of building permits;
3. RCW 36.32.240 thru .250, relating to competitive bidding on public works materials and supplies, and contractor's bond;
4. RCW 39.04, relating to public works;
5. RCW 39.08, relating to contractor's bonds;
6. RCW 39.12, 39.16 and 49.46, relating to minimum and prevailing wages, resident employees, and penalties;
7. RCW 39.25, relating to use of offshore items;
8. RCW 39.20, relating to employment of certain aliens;
9. RCW 49.12 and 49.28, relating to hours of labor, and female and child labor;
10. RCW 49.60, "law against discrimination";
11. RCW 51.12, relating to workmen's compensation, and employment covered under State Industrial Insurance, especially RCW 51.12.050 and .070, relating to liability for payments into Industrial Insurance accident fund; and RCW 50.24.014, as to unemployment compensation contributions;
12. RCW 60.28, relating to liens for labor, materials, taxes and retained percentage in connection with public works projects. Except as provided in Section 1-07.1 of the Standard Specifications, all costs incurred as a result of compliance with Federal, State and local rules and regulations shall be paid by the Contractor and all such costs, including taxes, permit, and other fees shall be included in the respective bid item amounts.

Wage rates for work performed under this contract are governed by the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries. No workman, laborer, or mechanic employed in the performance of any part of this contract shall be paid less than the "prevailing rate of wage" as determined by the Industrial Statistician of the Department of Labor and Industries. The schedule of the prevailing wage rates for the locality or localities where this contract will be performed is by reference made a part of this contract as though fully set forth herein.

Upon request, current Washington State prevailing wage rates data may be obtained from the Industrial Statistician. Request must include the Federal Aid Contract Number and the contract title, county in which the contract is located and occupations by general description (e.g., carpenters, electricians, laborers, etc.) to be used in the contract. Request may be mailed to:

Department of Labor and Industries
Employment Standards Division General Administration Building
Olympia, WA 98504
Telephone: (360) 753-4019

In accordance with the provisions of Section 39.12.040 of the Revised Code of Washington (RCW), each voucher claim for payment on a project estimate shall state that the prevailing wages have been paid in accordance with the pre-filed statement(s) of intent to pay prevailing wages on file with the County.

Attention is called to Section 296-127-040 and 296-127-045 of the Washington State Administrative Code, which require fee payments to the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries for processing of statements of intent, to pay prevailing wages and affidavits of wages paid.

No claim for additional compensation shall be allowed for the Contractor because of any payments in excess of the prevailing rates, or for any fees. The Contractor shall adjust all disputes in regard to payment of wages in excess of those specified in this contract.
